Building on a fine tradition of race walking, 70 years in the making.

November 27th 2025

November has been Australian Athletics Integrity Month

Integrity is more than a word in Australian Athletics. It's how we move forward, together. Throughout November, Australian Athletics has been recognising Athletics Integrity Month, shining a light on the values that underpin our sport, in regards to

- Fairness – Respect - Safety - Trust

From club volunteers to coaches, officials, administrators and athletes, everyone has a role to play in building a culture where doing the right thing comes first.

This message from AA reflects their shared commitment to raising the bar, doing the right thing and standing for the values that define Australian athletics.

Across November, Australian Athletics hosted a series of free webinars open to the entire Australian athletics community. The sessions covered practical topics designed for club administrators, Member Associations, volunteers, coaches and athletes.

The programme explored key areas such as:

- Safeguarding and recruitment practices
- Complaint management and reporting
- Building safe and respectful club environments

The modules delivered were

- The National Integrity Framework 101
- Complaint handling
- Member Protection Information Officer Part 2
- eSafety Commissioner Guest Presentation
- Digital awareness and safety
- Safeguarding in practice
- Safeguarding on paper

You can now view these recorded webinars at Sport Integrity Australia Resources - <https://www.athletics.com.au/info-hub/sports-integrity/education-and-additional-resources/>

Australian Marathon Race Walking Championships

Saturday, 29 November Stromlo Forest Park, Canberra

AA Preview

Australia's racewalkers are set to compete for a piece of history as the inaugural Australian Athletics Marathon Race Walking Championships arrive in Canberra this weekend, with qualifying times and national titles to fight for as part of the Chemist Warehouse Winter Series.

With the marathon race walk replacing the 35km race walk on the world stage, Olympic medallist Rhydian Cowley is one of main men welcoming the change as a seasoned veteran, who was known to excel in the now defunct 50km race walk.

Cowley will toe the line as the pre-race favourite alongside Olivia Sandery (SA) in the women's event as the respective 35km national record holders, but challenges can be expected from up-and-coming walkers Will Thompson (VIC) and Elizabeth McMillen (SA).

"I've grown used to the distance changing a few times in recent years, so I'm looking forward to giving the marathon a go as something new and as my season opener for 2026," Cowley said. "The aim on the weekend will be to help some friends get a qualifying time (3:18) for the World Racewalking Teams Championship in Brazil in April 2026. Obviously it would be nice to get another national championship after collecting a bunch over 35k."

Sandery's best performance of 2:42:40 in the 35km race walk earns her favouritism for Saturday's 42.2km contest, holding the ascendancy on paper over Allanah Pitcher (NSW) and McMillen who are tied at 2:47:26, with McMillen on the rise as the 2025 FISU World University Games champion in the 20km race walk.

Athletes will have the added incentive of qualifying for the 2026 World Athletics Racewalking Teams Championships to be held in Brazil in April, with the qualifying standard set at 3:18:00 for men and 3:40:00 for women, also serving as a selection trial for the event.

The morning of racing at Canberra's Stromlo Forest Park will also include a non-championship half marathon race walk for men and women, featuring Commonwealth Games medallist Declan Tingay (WA) and World Under 20 representative Chelsea Roberts (NSW). Given the marathon race walk is a new event on the world stage, no national record will be officially recognised until 2027.

📍 Check with your club or visit bluecard.qld.gov.au

Rules of Race Walking

There are two basic rules in Race Walking: • Contact: The athlete must never have both feet off the ground at once. • Knees: The advancing leg must be straightened (not bent at the knee) from when the foot first makes contact with the ground until the vertical upright position.

Blue Cards

As part of our legal obligations and a condition of our affiliation with QA we must maintain a current Blue Card register. We have a duty to be fully aware of exactly who is coaching or providing services to our members, particularly when those members include children or young people under 18.

Equally important is ensuring that every coach or provider engaged in child-related activities holds a current and valid Blue Card, as required under Queensland legislation.

This is not only a matter of compliance, but also a fundamental part of maintaining a safe and trusted environment for all participants. Our club will continue to ensure that we are meeting our duty of care and fulfilling and our legal obligations under the Working with Children (Risk Management and Screening) Act 2000.

If you have any questions or require assistance, please don't hesitate to contact our club Blue Co-ordinator bluecardqrwc@gmail.com

QRWC Uniforms

Wearing a club uniform at our club meets is desirable but not compulsory. All Race Walking Australia event competitors MUST wear the uniform of their Club, as registered with Race Walking Australia. Failure to do so may result in disqualification.
